Invite you & your friends to join us as we celebrate 124 years of NZ women having the vote

Suffrage Day 2017

Auckland Suffrage Memorial

Te Ha o Hine Place (formerly Lower Khartoum Place)

Tuesday 19th September

12.30 – 1.30pm

Auckland Suffrage Memorial mural

Suffrage Day is a chance to celebrate the achievements of NZ women from winning the right to vote in 1893 until now. Much has been achieved but much remains to be done to achieve real gender equality in Aotearoa/NZ.

NCWNZ is leading work to achieve gender equality.

Come and join us, 4 days before our General Election, in celebrating, discussing what is needed to achieve gender equality, sharing information and committing to campaigning for change.

Note: Rain day location is the Ellen Melville Hall corner High Street and Freyberg Place
